The 83 County Road Agencies of Michigan

Established 1918

JOHN D. NIEMELA
Director

Dear Friend of the Highway Industry,

The Board of Directors of the County Road Association of Michigan by resolution has authorized the establishment of an Associate Membership category which is open to all friends and supporters of Michigan county roads and bridges.

Any person, firm, or corporation fostering the interest and promotion of rural and urban streets and highways, upon application to and approval of the Membership Committee may become an Associate Member.

The Membership Committee shall be the Executive Committee composed of the President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and Director.

Such Associate Member may attend general and committee meetings of the Association, but shall have no vote at any meeting, nor be eligible for any elected or appointed office or committee membership.

Associate Membership benefits include:

- 1) Receipt of Association newsletters, bulletins and other mailings;
- 2) Discounted registration fees for the County Road Association Highway Conference;
- 3) Eligibility for participation in the annual Highway Conference Trade Show and the Trade Show at the Superintendents' Seminar.
- 4) Listing in our annual Directory and on CRAM's website.
- 5) Limited number of complimentary County Road Association Directories.
